Item	Questions and Answers
1	We would like to confirm whether a firm - whether serving as prime, joint-venture partner, or subconsultant - is permitted to participate on more than one Design-Build team submitting a proposal for this solicitation, or whether the County restricts firms to a single team per submission. Each construction and design firm is limited to participating on one proposing team. In this instance, "Design Firm" is not meant to include design subconsultants such as, geotech, survey and testing firms, rather it will be the firm serving as the design firm of record for the project. Joint Ventures are no longer an option for this project.
